On the Schauenberg. The Schauenberg is a picturesque plateau-like hill, 2080 feet high, in the Thuringian Forest. Here Ludwig "mit dem Barte" built a castle in 1045, whence his son Ludwig "der Springer" lived until 1056. Their successors, however, left the building to the Reinhardsbrunn Monastery, the Abbots of which allowed the land [illegible] to fall into decay.
